To Whom It May Concern

Date. 10-10-2018

I have known the applicant, Ms. May Phuu Cho, since 2015 when she joined University of Mandalay as a First Year Student majoring in Political Science. She is diligent and industrious. She is now a First Year Honours Student at University of Mandalay.

Ms. May Phuu Cho is a sincere, honest and hardworking student. She actively participates in the classroom discussion. She is a good discussant. I have found that the quality of her writings and presentations was quite impressive. She is good at analytical thinking and creative thinking.

She is friendly and she gets along well with everyone. She is amiable in manner and flexible in outlook. She is adaptable to new social and cultural environments. She obviously possesses impressive interpersonal and leadership skill. Her views on a wide range of matters are taken very seriously by people. She has the ability to work comfortably and harmoniously with her colleagues. She is highly motivated, genuinely self-confident and has a realistic understanding of her own abilities. I highly admired her absolute honesty, dedication to her work and extreme diligence. I am confident that she will make a success in doing her academic work.
